Paramedics Providing Palliative Care at Home

What's in it for you?

Paramedic perspective

Assistance with your decision making and changing care plans through OMD support

Maintain and enhance the level of care that the patient is already receiving in their home.

> Increase your confidence and skills in the provision of palliative care approach within your current scope of practice

Provide a supportive level of care that the patients and their family require and that you want to provide

> Improved pathways to share information about the call and treatment provided with other care providers maintaining continuity of care

Receive internationally recognized paramedic specific education developed by paramedic and palliative care experts

Recognize that patients are registered with the palliative care program; access their advanced care plans and goals of care to better support end of life wishes

233A Main St. Selkirk MB R1A 1S1