

Since 2004, Camp Stepping Stones has provided an opportunity for children from across Manitoba to come together with others who have experienced the loss of someone significant in their lives..

Led by compassionate volunteers, campers are provided a safe environment to explore their feelings of grief with peers who are also grieving.

Your support ensures that they don't have to experience grief alone.

Camp Stepping Stones exists because of the generosity of donors and volunteers.

“ On the way home my son said “I am happy”. This is the first time I have heard him say this since his Dad died. ”

“ I believe it was really beneficial for my child to realize they are not the only one to lose a parent. In school they felt like they were. ”

“ My child loved all the crafts, especially the memory pillow. It was such a special way to remember his dad and he sleeps with it every night. ”

“ My son was able to process the loss of his dad as he learned of other kids’ losses through their sharing circles. Although heavy, he was so open to hearing about the experiences of his friends and their families and this really aided in his ability to talk openly. He told me that he had a really good cry after talking about dad and it helped him to work through this with his cabin leaders. He loved his time at camp. ”

“ Camp wasn’t just something fun to do, it was a valuable resource that I hope can reach other kids who have difficulty processing death. ”
